Flemmings, Ramsceair Jacques, “FIND ME”

Father! Where are you? Where have you gone?
I fear they have come to do me harm.
Now I sit alone bound to their rules.
Daddy, please help! I’m becoming confused.

My mind is becoming tortured beyond repair.
Enchanting views have lured me to their lair.

Broken hopes have flourished with ease.
Escape, I must, but they keep watching me.
Father! Father! Father! This I did not choose.
Oppress me, they have, with these barbaric roles.
Resisting their regime has weakened my resolve.
Eradicate them, I tried, still they stand tall.

Infectious, I have become, because now I fall.
