Flemmings, Ramsceair Jacques, "Grisaille"

Why am I so troubled within?
Why am I falling into the deepest part of the yet unseen?
I suppose love has lost its purpose.
My heart is falling apart even while I dream.

Why have I become consumed with trying to obtain the secret gift?
Upon the waves of uncertainty I unsteadily drift.
Storms around me, thunder crashes all around without ceasing.
I stare into the void of loneliness unsure if my heart's still beating.

Forsaken, into the abyss and its eternal and
its infinite course, Journeying with the unknown, wishing to someday hear her voice.
