Flemmings, Ramsceair Jacques, "LIVE FOR ME"

Living seems to be impossible for the oppressed.
Intuitions of slavery are full of sickness and death.
Vicious beasts are employed to bring forth misery and stress,
Erasing the bonds between families until none of them are left.

Fight for what is true; defend the ones who can't oppose.
Obey the laws of the ancient warriors who stood as One.
Ruin their deceptive foundations that have caused us to stray.

Make their armies bow down to our demands and continue to obey.
Every African American's desire is to receive the True Equality that's never been done.
