Flemmings, Ramsceair Jacques, “VORACIOUS One”

Voyages to oblivion readied my inner core for the courses
that lay dormant ahead;
Opened, dark brown eyes refused to close; they must've known
who would awaken upon my bed;
Rummaging near guarded places something struck me deeply
inserting its venomous fangs;
Annihilation bore into the surface disorienting the One who protected me from paradigms of pangs; Constructing itself on palaces with fire channeling between every
grand mountain and land; Inscribing many of its inklings with no pity hardening the foundations of my once smooth hands;
Occupying sacred temples for offering pretentious beings
asylum as they hide;
Unmoved by the sadistic rules created by insidious natures
amongst one another they confide;
Sedating me, its venomous toxins have forcefully demanded
me to allow the closing of my eyes.
