Marino K. Leyba, "Never Satisfied"

I could have died, yet I survived.
No matter what happens in life I will never be satisfied.

The stars could fall at my feet.
I could travel the seven seas.
The world could make me its king, but it's you that I need.

I have followed the road to success.
I have fallen and become the best.
I have seen the north, the south, the east and the west.
I am tired, yet I still find no rest.

I keep on climbing!
I keep on shining!
I keep on rhyming!
I can't stop. I won't stop until I have the gift of perfect timing.

To master the universe without your love only leaves me lonely.
To master the universe without your love leaves me feeling like no one really knows me.

The softest, sweetest sound of mine.
We had the world, yet we did not have the wine.
The softest, sweetest sound of mine.
We had the world, yet we did not have the time.

I could have died, yet I survived.
No matter what happens in life
I will never be satisfied.
